hard. But the end was just the same less dresses at the partment. Before the fighting started orders were issued which will when fully carried out give Gen. Otis a force of 35,000 regulars, which will be five from their families is contrary to the thousand more men than he has at any usage and custom of the country. The time expressed an opinion were neces-sary to put down the Philippine revolt. No additional orders are at this time No additional orders are at this time contemplated by the War Department, but as Gen. Otis is conducting an active campaign, notwithstanding the rainy season, necessity for other orders may arise at any time. Only one object is aimed at by the department—to put down the revolt at the earliest possible moment.

The troublesome question of a flag for Cuban vessels that would secure them protection in foreign ports, has been satisfactorily solved, and the War Department will issue orders which will enable Cuban vessels to fly the U. S. flag above the coasting flag already authorized. The combination of the wo flags will give notice to foreign authorities that while the vessel flying hem is not an American vessel, it is under American protection. The privilege of carrying the flag will confer no privilege enjoyed by an American vessel in foreign ports, through treaty, nor in our own ports. The regulations for the use of the flag will prescribe that the owner of the vessel applying therefor shall give bond that his vessel shall engage only in legitimate trade, and shall use the flag only for purposes and anali the ing only to purpose set forth in the official order; also that see any reason why you can't find it no Cuban vessel engaged in foreign again. How did you lose it?" no Cuban vessel engaged in foreign trade shall carry arms or ammunition, except by special permission of the general commanding the United States forces in Cuba. Vessels having the flag shall when in foreign ports deposit their clearance papers with the United States consul, or if there be none, with the consul of a friendly nation. The order has been very carefully drawn by Attorney General Briggs. Notwithstanding the claim by the Philadelphia paper that published the sensational interview with Prof. Haupt, who was a member of the Nicaragua Canal Commission, and is a member of the new Canal Commission, concernthe methods of the opposition to prevent the construction of the Nicaragua canal, that the interview was correct. Prof. Haupt's denial of both the language and the sentiments of the interview, has been accepted by President McKinley, and the incident is closed, so far as any official action is con-

Ex-Congressman Baker, of New Hampshire, who is president of the League of Republican Workers, which has been formed for the purpose of opposing any further extension of the civil service rules, says he expects to have some startling facts to present to Congress next winter. Speaking of the league and its objects, Mr. Baker said: "We are opposed not only to an extension of the civil service system, but also to the interference with the law which has been practiced. In other words, we believe that the law Warranted to please. 25c. should be put back to just what its terms specifically indicate. The law was intended originally to apply only to departmental clerkships with salaries from $1,200 to $1,800 and like grades of clerical service in post-offies and custom houses. There is, we believe, no just ground for the extensions that have been made. In addition to this; appointments have been made in violation of law. Favorites in lower grades have been promoted without examination, and have been appointed without entrance examination. These fortunate people are the pets of the men in power, and generally of those who are the loudest in their praise of civil service reform. I shall not specify these cases at this time, but the facts will be made known to congress. The result will be, we think, to prevent the civil service humbug being coddled any further. We shall try to prevent the insertion of a civil service plank in the next republican national platform.

The best thing about Col Hender son's remarkable triumph is that it has left no hard feelings. Ex-Congressman Southwick, of N. Y., one of Rev. resentative Sherman's closest friends. who was in Washington this week, said: "Mr. Sherman accepts his defeat for the speakership with the utmost philosophy, and isn't in the least sore over Col.
